COMPASSION

Managing a portrait studio in Notting Hill throughout the 90's I was involved in organising a 72hour fund raising exhibition titled Compassion, conceived by Koo Stark. Held at Hamiltons gallery in Mayfair, 600 images, were donated by 150 photographers. Including Cartier Bresson, Martine Franck, Irving Penn, Mary Ellen Mark, Eve Arnold, Ian Berry, David Hurn and Paul Reas. The raffled images raised the funds for the building of the Rato Dratsung monastery in Mundgod, India.
