

George Kennethson (1910-1994)

Oundle.

George Kennethson first visited Worth in the 1930's returning every summer, with his family, to stay in the village. Drawing inspiration from the cliffs, birds and the sea, several of his abstract carvings were produced in stone from St Aldhelm's Quarry.

St Aldhelm's Head

Oundle